

Fundraising Statement

Our Room really appreciates the generosity of all our supporters. Your donations allow us to work towards achieving our vision: male, trans and non-binary sex workers live happier, healthier more creative lives. We monitor our fundraising activities closely to ensure compliance with our fundraising policy, principles and procedures, and with relevant regulation and legislation. We report on our strategic, operational and financial performance in full compliance with all UK laws and regulations.

We ask that all supporters familiarise themselves with the fundraising practices below. These are intended to ensure our fundraising activity occurs in a way that protects all parties and follows best practice.

Suitability

When fundraising for us, we ask that you are respectful to any members of the public that engage with your activity. Please conduct yourself in a way that reflects positively on Our Room.

We cannot take responsibility for any costs or expenses incurred or arising in connection with your fundraising activity.

There may be occasions where we cannot accept a donation, for example, if we feel that accepting it could damage our reputation or independence. If we do reject a donation, we will provide an explanation as to why.
